Subject: Invitation to Participate in the Third Arab Conference for Agricultural Investment, Khartoum, the Republic of Sudan, 27-28 February 2017

The Arab Authority for Investment and Development extends your Excellency its heartiest greetings and warmest regards.

It gives us great pleasure to inform your Excellency that the Arab Authority for Investment and Development is organizing the Third Arab Conference for Agricultural Investment in Khartoum, Sudan under the Theme: "Our Food. Our Responsibility" under the generous Patronage of His Excellency President Omer Al Bashir, the President of the Republic of Sudan on 27-28th February 2017 in the Presidential Hall, The Friendship Palace.

The Conference will host more than 500 high-level government officials, an elite group of businessmen and businesswomen, institutional investors, regional and international organizations, Farmer Union representatives, researchers and other stakeholders related to the agricultural sector.

Among the Conference objectives is to highlight the efforts of the Arab countries to enhance their investment climates and the reflection of those efforts to attract more agricultural investments in Arab countries that are rich in agricultural resources. The event also aims to expand horizons of Arab inter-trade in agricultural products. Themes include the promotion of available investment opportunities in the Arab countries displayed on the Conference's official website as well as the signing of partnership and cooperation agreements in various agricultural sectors.

The conference will also hold a side exhibition for pioneer agricultural companies and the second day includes planned field visits for interested delegates to a number of successful agricultural projects around the capital Khartoum.

We look forward to your esteemed acceptance our invitation.

Sincerely,
Mohamed Bin Obaid Al-Mazrooei
President and Chairman of AAAID
