

Objectives of the Conference

- To be an annual link between the SFDA and its partners from both public and private sectors.
- Providing an annual platform for scientific and practical discussion between SFDA and its partners.
- Exchange and transfer of scientific, legislative and regulatory developments from the disciplines related to the authority's knowledge.
- Transfer of expertise, knowledge and awareness related to drug, food and medical devices.
- Holding practical workshops in line with the orientations of the Authority.
- Organizing an annual exhibition with the participation of its partners to present new products, organizational affairs and development tools.

Food Axis

- Control and legislation of food products.
- Food safety and risk assessment.
- Fodder and its impact on human and animal health.
- Contaminants and residues of pesticides in food.
- Nutrition policies and their impact on public health.
- Legislation and specifications of innovative foods.

Drug Axis

- Control and legislation of medicines and drugs.
- Localization of the pharmaceutical industry.
- Pharmaceutical cheat and the quality medicines and lotions.
- Pharmacological alertness.
- Drug epidemiology.
- Economics and pricing of medicine.
- Cosmetic products.

Medical Devices Axis

- Clinical studies and investigations of medical devices and products.
- Legislation and regulations of medical devices and products.
- Monitoring and alertness of post-marketing of medical devices and products.
- Tests and standards of medical devices and products.
- Effect of supervision on medical equipment and products.
- Cybersecurity in medical devices.